Dedication

As a token of our thanks, we dedicate the 1952 Monticello to

Miss M. Frances Gray

our business adviser for the past seventeen years.

Foreword

Our life in high school today has grown out of Thomas Jefferson's vision of democracy, public education, and society working together for a common cause, that of molding young men and women into intelligent citizens who would live in the light of his ideals and build upon the foundation of our country a stronger union, impenetrable and unshakable to all who would create a totalitarian world.

Because of the principles of Jefferson and others of our founding fathers, we are privileged to live, breathe, and speak freely and without fear. It is our hope that we, the students of today, may, in our adult lives, further the ideals which have been instilled in us at Thomas Jefferson High School.

Th Jefferson

Our Alma Mater

To the high ideals that thou hast called us
We pledge allegiance strong and true;
And own a love that e'er will deepen,
Thomas Jefferson, for you.
And as we look into the future,
Whate'er our destinies may be,
O, Alma Mater, we will cherish
Fond memories of thee.

We love thy teachings and traditions,
The things no books can ever give,
For thou hast shown a deeper meaning,
Thou hast taught us how to live;
And we are glad to be thy children,
To toast thy future worth and fame,
So sing we now to Thomas Jefferson,
God's blessing on her name.

THOMAS JEFFERSON, "the prophet of educational opportunity," would literally shout for joy could he see how his prophecy has been realized at Tee Jay. Now we learn not only from books but from opportunities. "Math" proves an adventure, brought about at Tee Jay by a manual for geometry students written by our own Miss Allene Archer. The excitement of music, the color of art, and the romance of language all are made alive by radio broadcasting and personal appearances of the choirs, by museum exhibits of students' work and by the foreign language banquets. Classes in accounting and bookkeeping would surprise "Mr. Tom," but he would drop his jaw in amazement on seeing hundreds of machines which write merely by pressing keys. The National Science Talent Research Contest as well as the "lab" manual written by Tee Jay's Mr. Lawrence Jarman provide budding scientists with an outlet for their talents. Lively English classes, whether busy with literature, composition, or grammar, are occupied with movies, speeches, and texts with amusing cartoons. Great curiosity and pleasure excite the students of social studies as they set out on jaunts to Washington, D. C., visiting places of historical interest and fame. Physical "ed," homemaking, military drill, and driving are the courses which "top off" our years at Tee Jay. By these opportunities extended to us, the faculty of Tee Jay upholds the purposes of education as set forth by Thomas Jefferson—"to enable every man to judge for himself what will secure or endanger his freedom."

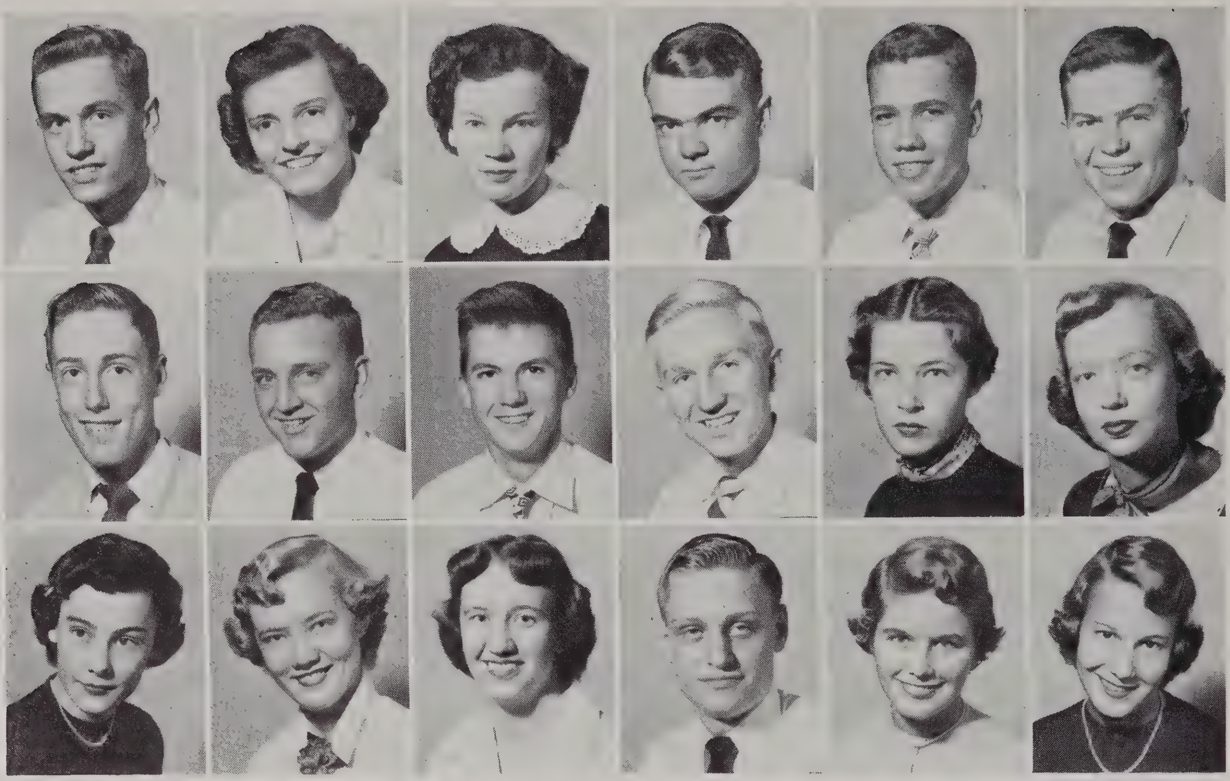
ORGANIZATIONS

We Live Our Pledge

As the name implies, the Board of Coordination regulates all the extra-curricular activities of the school in a smoothly running program. The Board includes the officers of the Student Participation, the officers and sponsors of each of the classes, representatives from "The Jeffersonian", "The Declaration", "The Monticello", the athletic and music departments, and the clubs. The Board asks its members to bring the desired dates for events they want to sponsor. From these dates the B. O. C. plans the calendar for the term so that the club meetings, sports events, dances, plays, and other activities do not conflict. The aim of the B. O. C. is to create good feeling and cooperation among all the groups in Tee Jay.

Anthony, Mr. Alton Howell, Mrs. Anne Plunkett, Gene Newman.



We Pledge Allegiance . . .

The Senate is the executive group of Thomas Jefferson's student body, and it is composed of twenty-one representatives. These are the officers of the Student Participation Association, the presidents of the classes, and the class senators. The members meet each day during the third period in 408 but hold only one buiness meeting each week. During the other days of the week the senators, each in charge of a separate committee, are busy planning S. P. A. activities. These S. P. A. activities are the backbone of the school, for through them the students participate in the essential activities. With the help of the faculty sponsor, Miss LaRue Brandenburg, and of the co-sponsor, Mrs. Katherine Brumble, the Senate tries to meet the problems of the student body and to form rules for the betterment of the school. It is the aim of the Senate to create better feeling and more cooperation between the student body and the administration. • One of the many activities in which the Senate participates is the City Federation of Student Councils. The Senate sends three representatives to each of the monthly Federation meetings. This organization has a timely program each month. One of the most interesting programs of the year has been a panel discussion on the subject of honesty in school. • This year Charlotte Wright, Jimmy Hatcher, Quaidie McLean, and Miss Brandenburg were the official representatives of the Thomas Jefferson Senate at the state's Student Cooperative Association Convention in Farmville, Virginia. Pat White was our nominee for president of the Association.

for Which It Stands . . .

The purpose of the Council of Homeroom Presidents is to aid the individual president in conducting his own homeroom meetings more efficiently. Through its meetings every second Tuesday of the month, it endeavors to solve the problems which might arise in the homerooms. This year the Council has taken on the responsibility of tabulating the individual S. P. points of each person in the homerooms. The Council's aim, through greater knowledge of parliamentary procedure, is to have better homeroom meetings throughout Tee Jay.

Honesty, Courtesy, Self-Control . . .

"Will the meeting please come to order?" is a familiar expression to all House members, for at this time another House meeting begins. The speaker of the House is also vice-president of the student body and presides during the sessions. One member is chosen conscientiously by each home room on the basis of good character, leadership, dependability, and willingness to serve. • During the meetings, held in 218 after school on the first and third Mondays of each month, the representatives bring in suggestions from their home rooms for improvements in the school and vote on suggested new measures. Through the House members an opportunity is afforded each student in the school to voice his opinion, and the House, sponsored by Mrs. Katherine Cooperation, Obedience to Authority . . .

Brumble, has helped increase the student participation in school government. The decisions of the House are often very important, for these students represent directly the student body, and their votes are instrumental in influencing a final decision. During this year suggestions, such as putting out Tee Jay book covers, setting up a special cheering section at football games, and installing a clock in the "Rec" Hall, have been approved. • Students may gain much training and knowledge from serving as House members, for, not only will they become thoroughly acquainted with parliamentary procedure but also they will realize how a democratic government should function.

with Kindness and Justice to All

Six years ago the Character Committee was formed by some students who realized that high school students will soon be citizens of our country and that America's future depends on them. Representatives from each home meet once each month at homeroom period to discuss problems and programs. • A steering committee of the larger group has worked with the faculty sponsor, Miss Elizabeth Beaman, and Senate chairman, Quaidie McLean, planning programs and activities. This year's aim of the Character Committee has been to stress moral and spiritual values and the ideals expressed in the school pledge. • There have been effctive programs titled "Staying in School" and "The New World Pioneers" planned by the group and put on in the various homerooms. During the week before Christmas, the Committee sponsored carol singing before school in the auditorium. In March the Committee distributed posters to promote neatness in school and to urge students to refrain from defacing the walls and bulletin boards. During Brotherhood Week the Committee sponsored an Inter-Faith assembly in which three speakers representing different faiths spoke on the subject of brotherhood.

Gladly We Serve

The Junior Red Cross, sponsored by Mrs. King, received this year more response from the students than in any other year. Some of the duties performed by the members were reading and entertaining polio and rheumatic fever patients at the Medical College of Virginia, helping in Central Supply at McGuire General Hospital, and doing miscellaneous work at the Red Cross Chapter House. One activity that aroused a great deal of interest among the students was the Red Cross assembly program in October. Miss Ann Wood told of her experiences at the National Red Cross Convention last summer, and of some of the rehabilitation work of the Red Cross. As a climax she presented two soldiers from Fort Lee who played the piano and sang for the assembly.

Books Pass through Busy Hands

Members of the Library Staff are pupils who devote one period each day to assisting our librarians. Staff meetings are held at homeroom period on the third Friday of each month. There are usually three students each period who alternate the work. One works at the desk, slipping and checking out books; another student shelves books; and a third works on newspapers, magazines, and other miscellaneous jobs. These students must receive passing grades on all subjects to be eligible for the staff. In working on the staff the students are not only aiding their chool, but are gaining valuable experience toward a possible future vocation.

Passes Checked and Staff Assisted

The Library Committee, under the sponsorship of Miss Clyde G. Carter and Miss Martha L. Savage, consists of twenty-eight students who work in the library during their study periods and in homeroom period. This committee is responsible for checking the time on the library slips of students who enter and leave. Although no regular meetings are held, these students perform their duty very capably.

Future Kiwanians Serve Their School

The Key Club of Thomas Jefferson, sponsored by the Richmond Kiwanis Club, is a service organization of the school. Like the Kiwanis Club, it is an international organization. Its members are elected by nominations from the freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior classes of the school and are chosen for high scholastic standing, leadership ability, and outstanding character. The club follows the objectives of the Key Club International, which are to develop initiative and leadership, to provide experience in living and working together, to serve the school, and to prepare for useful citizenship in the community. Following these principles, the club has projects each year, such as hall monitors during the recess periods and conducting an occupational survey with speakers on the occupations most preferred by the students. By having Kiwanian sponsors and sending two members each Monday to the Kiwanis meeting, the club keeps in close contact with this organization.

THE KEY CLUB—First Row: Dickie Smith, Bob Doggett, Cutler May, Tommy Agee, Howard Gill, Jimmy Black Meade Rudasill, president; Wyatt Beazley, Ernest Clements, Philip Morris, Chuck Arnold. • Second Row: Ranny Church, Tom Sydnor, Floyd Adams, Johnny Adams, Charles Drum, Harvey Williams, Charlie Brandt, Richard Blanton, Peter Dillon, Dickie Barham. • Third Row: Neal de Witt, Edwin Whitfield, Joe Davila, Richard Parsley, Edgar Baird, Joe Eanes. Quiet Studies for Peaceful Souls

Although there is no honor system in Tee Jay, there is a phase of honor displayed in the honor studies. During every period of the day, there is one study where students are in charge. Each member of the study hall must be recommended by a teacher as possessing outstanding character and self-control. In every honor study hall there is an honor study chairman. He is not there to keep order but merely to administer to the needs of the members of the study, such as giving library permits. He also keeps an accurate roll and record which is turned in to Mrs. Corprew, who is faculty sponsor. A feature of the Student Participation Association, these studies promote self-control, honesty, and self-reliance. Howard Gill is Chairman of the group.

Our Best Foot Forward

As a visitor enters Tee Jay, he is greeted by an attractive receptionist, who sits at the desk in the front hall ready to give information or direct people around the building. Each girl is called on duty every third week from her study period. These receptionists do their bit to promote the hospitality in Tee Jay and to aid the efficient functioning of school activities.

Each period during the day there are two members of the Office Aid Committee on duty in the office. These students work during their study periods in three shifts, running errands, taking messages, welcoming visitors, distributing mail, and assisting late students. The members of this committee are really student assistants to the school secretaries. The experience they gain in office work will certainly help some of them in later life.

First Aid to Learning and Health

The Guidance Aid Committee, composed of thirty-nine members, answers the telephone, runs errands, and helps the counselors with anything that needs to be done. There are three shifts with two working each class period and one working at homeroom period. Members of the Guidance Aid Committee gain valuable experience in office work.

The Nurse's Aid Committee, one of the oldest Student Participation Committees, is almost indispensable to Miss Lamb, our school nurse. During all but one period of the day girls are on duty as secretary to her. Their jobs may vary from running errands, filing reports, and writing notices, to assisting the nurse in keeping health records of students. When the nurse is called away, the girl on duty is in charge of the infirmary. Girls interested in nursing usually sign up for this committee because of the opportunity to work with a registered nurse and gain much valuable information.

Some Show Films and Others Clean Erasers

The Audio-Visual Committee, with Mr. George Butler as director, is coordinated with the Audio-Visual program of the City of Richmond, and also with the Bureau of Teaching Materials of the State of Virginia. • The teachers have been calling for more and more audio-visual aids in the classroom, and at the present time the committee has grown to eighteen members, including sixteen boys and two girls. Theoretically, every classroom is an audio-visual room, and at times there are as many as five different motion pictures being shown at the same period in the building. • In addition to showing motion pictures, the boys and girls show strip films and play wire recorders and phonographs.

The Eraser Committee works in three shifts with two members to each shift. A different shift is on duty each Monday, Thursday and Friday. These boys have a first period study and willingly give up one period a week to collect and clean erasers. In this way they do their part in making our school a cleaner, more sanitary building.

They Sell Tickets to Our Bus Chasers

The Bus Ticket Committee is composed of volunteer workers from the student body. This committee is responsible for the sale of Virginia Transit Company bus tickets to the students who ride buses to and from school. These tickets are sold after school on Mondays and Wednesdays and before school on Tuesdays and Thursdays. A five per cent commission earned provides a monthly income for the S. P. and enables the organization to be self-supporting.

The Special Services Committee is a unique one, as it is a combination of small committees, each performing a valuable service to our school.The Milk Bar Committee is composed of four students who give their services at the two recess periods. Seven boys run the elevator before school and during the six periods of the day, thus giving aid to those who are not able to climb the steps. Other small committees are the typists who do S. P. work, the monitors at the cafeteria doors when the study periods go to recess, the refreshment committee for the school dances, and substitutes for various committees. Tee Jay could not carry on its work efficiently without the valuable work rendered by Special Services.

They Fetch All Manner of Things

Chemistry laboratory assistants serve one period daily in room 325 where all chemicals and equipment are stored. • The chemistry laboratory assistant unlocks the desks in the laboratory at the beginning of the period and locks them at the end. He helps the instructor get chemicals and has charge of the stock. In addition the assistant must keep all acid bottles and other storage bottles filled. In this way he keeps the laboratory ready at all times. • In Room 3A the biology laboratory assistants take charge of the biology equipment and materials. It is their responsibility to deliver materials to the five biology class-rooms when requisitioned, and later to collect these materials and return them to their proper places. The assistants keep 3A in order and render valuable aid. • Both the chemistry and biology laboratory assistants run errands for their respective departments and help students who are behind in their work.

Any boy or girl interested in chemistry or biology, if recommended by his instructor as being capable and dependable, may be appointed as chemistry laboratory assistant under Miss Helen Gill or biology laboratory assistant under Mrs. Ruth Browning. Although laboratory assistants are not alternated in shifts, the students enjoy their work and still find ample time for studying.

Gay Posters and Messages on the Wing

Along with the help of Mrs. Bennett, our art teacher, the Bulletin Board Committee keeps us up-to-date with the activities in our school. By posting pictures and advertisements of plays, football games, and many other interesting activities the committee helps to make Tee Jay's halls attractive and bright. Students volunteer to serve before school in alternate weeks, and the members receive activity points for their work.

The Messenger Committee is a very important branch of the Student Participation. Every morning before school, at homeroom period, and at the sixth period, these students deliver messages from 408 to the homerooms and offices of the school and aid the school in functioning smoothly.

Keeping Check on Our Absentees

The Daily Report and Absentee Sheet Committees are sponsored by the Student Participation Association and are very helpful to the homerooms and the office. The daily attendance reports are collected from each homeroom and then are taken to the office during the first period by the members of the Daily Report Committee. During third period, after the office mimeographs a list of absent students, the Absentee Sheet Committee reports to the office. The members get the absentee sheets and take them to each teacher and administrator. The committee volunteers work during their study periods in weekly shifts. These alert girls do an indispensable job for the smoothly running routine at Tee Jay and at the same time they acquire the valuable habit of promptness and efficiency in their work. Teachers and administrators value their service to the school.

Their Goal Is the Business World

Because of the increasing interest in business subjects, the roll of the Business Education Club, formerly the Commercial Club, has grown considerably. Any student who takes typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, or filing is eligible for membership. The members of the club visit business firms in the city so that they may familiarize themselves with the business world. Programs are presented at the meetings, which are held on the second and fourth Friday of each month. Besides other activities, an outing is held each spring. To our sponsor, Miss Helen Botto, goes our deepest appreciation for her guidance.

The Auxiliary Aid Committee is an organization which helps to check for absentees on the various other Student Participation Committees in the school. Each period a member of the committee from one of the study halls goes around to the Reception Desk, Guidance Aid, Nurse's Aid, Office Aid, Elevator and Library Committees to see if the members are on duty. If not, the absentees are reported to the sponsor, Miss Brandenburg, in 408. Then the Auxiliary Aid members go on duty in place of the absent members. If there are too many absentees, students are sometimes taken from their study halls to fill the vacancies. This committee is important in that it is an assurance that every position assigned around the building will be filled.

They Show the Way

The Club Affiliations Committee is an organization composed of representatives of all the clubs and organizations recognized by the administration of Thomas Jefferson which have no representatives in the high school Senate. With Mrs. Brumble as this year's sponsor, the committee serves to increase interest and membership in the smaller clubs and to assist in the organization of new ones. The group meets on the first Friday of every month in order to assist the clubs in any problems which they may have.

The Usher Committee is comprised of about twenty-eight boys. Half of them work during "A" assembly and half of them work during "B" assembly. They open and close the doors, direct traffic, distribute programs, and keep anyone from entering after the program has started. Mr. Arthur Allison is faculty sponsor and guides the boys in their work. Richard Parsley is the Senate representative from this committee.

Stalwart Keepers of Good Order

The Traffic Committee, sponsored by Mr. Clyde B. Fortna, is organized to regulate traffic in the halls between periods. This committee helps the students to get to classes more quickly and with less confusion and congestion. The committee for 1951-1952 was made up of three shifts for each floor of the building, and each person was on duty once in every three weeks. A member of each shift for each floor had to check the punctuality of the members on posts. The senate chairmen this year were Wyatt Beazley, Charles Gurkin, and Richard Blanton.

"How to the Singer . . .

The Girl's Glee Club is a regular voice class which studies all types of music and encourages its members to attend current concerts and listen to radio and television programs of musical interest. Among the activities of the year were a radio broadcast over Station WRNL, an assembly program, and participation with other vocal groups in the Christmas and Easter assemblies. • On alternate Fridays programs are presented under the direction of the vice-president with members of the club singing solos and in small ensembles. Then the week's work is concluded with the singing of currently popular songs. • Officers for the year were Ann Hart, president; Margaret Clarke, vice-president; Betty Jean Jenkins, secretary-treasurer; Jimmia Lee Rice, Margie Duke, and Ann Duke, librarians. Comes the Song"

The Thomas Jefferson A Cappella Choir is composed of advance voice students chosen by Mr. Alton Howell, the director. The choir represents the school throughout the city at various functions. This year the group sang for one of the Community Chest luncheons, presented a number of assembly programs, gave concerts for both the senior and junior groups of the Richmond Musician's Clubs, took part in a Sunday night service at the First Baptist Church, and gave a spring concert with the orchestra and band in March. A fifteen minute radio show was recorded in the band room each week for broad cast over station WRNL, and in May the group presented the Victor Herbert operetta, "The Fortune Teller." • The group meets every day during fourth period as a full credit class under the direction of Mr. Howell in room 218. They study all types and moods of music from the masters to modern jazz. • Chosen this year as officers were Clyde Tipton, president; Judy Moore, vice-president; Agnes Rennie, secretary; Henry Eubank and Buddy Arnold, librarians; Pat White, Sarah Cousins, Clyde Tipton, Gene Gee and Judy Moore, section leaders; Anne Minor, Club Affiliations representative.

There's a Song in My Heart . . .

The Boys' Glee Club has been a very active organization during the past school year. In addition to its regular second period classroom activities, it has taken part in the opening assembly of the term, has recorded one radio broadcast, and has taken part in the Christmas and Easter assemblies. As in other vocal groups, there have been many discussions of current concerts and shows, radio and television programs, and musical personalities of all types. The boys are given an opportunity to hear and sing all types of music, and to recognize what is good and what is bad in each type. • The officers for this term were Buddy Robertson, president; Berkley Pitts, vice-president; Julian Shinault, secretary; James Burton, Donald Elliott, and Charles Irby, librarians. Mr. Alton Howell is the club sponsor.

The Mixed Glee Club is one of Mr. Howell's daily music classes. Members sing a wide variety of music, ranging from popular numbers to sacred compositions. They rehearse four days a week, working especially toward the Christmas and Easter assembly programs. Friday is set aside as "Program Day" when the boys and girls present a program in which members of their own and other music classes participate. Through class discussions of concerts and other musical functions in Richmond, the Mixed Glee Club gets a better understanding of and appreciation for worthwhile music. • The officers for this term were Tucker Smith, president; Bobbie Jones, vice-president; Stuart Brooks, secretary; and Louis Bowman and Bobby Myer, librarians.

and Melody in the Air

The three-fold purpose of the Jeff Clef Club is to provide an outlet for the musical talents of Tee Jay students, to present outstanding local artists in short recitals, and to make its members aware of the musical opportunities afforded by concerts presented in the city, on radio, and on television. • Membership is not limited to those taking music, but is open to all students interested in listening to music. The club, sponsored by Mr. Alton Howell, meets on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. • Student programs have included those given by representatives from the Tee Jay Orchestra, the voice classes, and John Marshall High School vocal groups. Guest artists included Wilson Angell, baritone, and Roy Caudle, tenor. • Officers chosen for this year were Lucas Drew, president; Barbara Lee, vice-president; Judy Moore, secretary; Sherwood Hutcherson, treasurer; and Anne Minor, club affiliations representative.

String and Brass United as One

As you pass the room 136 during the fourth period, you will hear familiar strains of such numbers as "Surprise Symphony," "Oklahoma," and "The Barber of Seville." The orchestra of Tee Jay has a wide selection of music from which to choose to give their audiences a pleasing concert. The orchestra plays in the fall for the opening of the Community Chest and concludes the year with the Annual Spring Concert. • The strings join in with the many string sections of orchestras throughout the state to perform in the yearly String Clinic. This year the String Clinic went to Philadelphia for two days to perform for a Music Educators' National Conference. In March the orchestra, choir, and band presented their annual Spring Concert, and in May "The Fortuneteller", an operetta by Victor Herbert, was enthusiastically given. • A weekly activity of the orchestra is making recordings for the radio station WRNL. The orchestra and the A Cappella Choir, under the direction of Mr. Wendt and Mr. Howell, respectively, join their talents to make beautiful music.

"Opere in Medio"

It's not Cicero giving an oration; it's Pat Ewell, "consul", calling the "Olympic Council" to order in the Latin Club of Tee Jay High School. There is Gwen Coyner, "pro-consul", and Pat White, "quaestor," at her side to aid her. These are only three of the twenty odd Latin 5-8 students who meet first period in 107 under the guidance of Miss Gray, "magister". The members produced a Latin play, "Cinderella", for the school assemblies, held a banquet with all the Roman atmosphere and tradition, and participated in a Latin Christmas party. These students of Latin meet as a club every two weeks and every one has a good time in a respectable "Roman" way. Living up to their motto, "Facta non verba", the members show plenty of action.

The Old and the New in Virginia

"Virginia—Past, Present, and Future" has been the theme of the Forum, 1951-1952. The club has tried to promote interest in Virginia's history, industries, and culture through its varied programs. Tours were made of the Valentine Museum, and of old Richmond. Our assembly program was based on Virginia's first unofficial ambassador to England, Pocahontas. The purpose of this assembly was to arouse interest in the restoration of St. George's chapel at Gravesend, where Pocahontas was buried, and its proposed conversion to a chapel of unity for all faiths. The club has as its sponsors Mrs. Frances Trevvett Matthews and Mrs. Archie Marks.

"My Book and Heart Must Never Part"

The Thomas Jefferson Book Club is holding its monthly meeting in 206. Pat Ewell, the president, calls the meeting to order and asks Judith Harrison, the secretary, to read the minutes. Mary Ann Harshbarger, the treasurer, gives a report on club finances and Ruth Sanderson, the vice-president, presents the program. This may be any one of a number of things. Often dramatic skits are presented, or a member is asked to review a book. Sometimes the club is privileged to have a well-known guest on hand to review a best-seller, and occasionally the meetings are climaxed with refreshments. The aim of the Book Club is to promote an interest in good books and literature of all types, and it strives to feature programs promoting this aim. Under the sponsorship of Miss Esther Singleton, the club has increased in interest and membership since its organization in 1945.

"We, the Younger Generation . . .

Since the organization of the YWCA in 1885 in Boston, Massachusetts, this women's movement has grown to include 608 American Associations and other groups in sixty-five foreign countries. Its purpose, "To build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians," has united women and girls to service and fellowship in various types of communities. One of the most outstanding privileges of a Y-Teen is that of attending the National YWCA Convention, held every three years. Y-Teens have midwinter state-wide conferences where delegates from every Y-Teen club can come together for fellowship and to receive program ideas. These state conferences are carried out on a large scale by regional summer conferences that draw members from four or five states and last for one week. • This year Triangle I took over monitorial duties in the school cafeteria and enjoyed many fine programs at the bi-weekly meetings, including a fashion show. The girls provided a happy Chrismas for a needy family and also sponsored a Sock Hop, held at the YWCA. The officers for the first school term were Margaret Rook, Ann Lee, and Taddy Turner. In the February elections, Pat Kraft, Joanne Snow, Martha Brewbaker, and Becky Branch were elected. Under the leadership of Miss Sue Beaman the club has had a very successful year. • Triangle II has been led this year by Macon Moring, Beverly Pleasants, Joanne McLelland, Anne Wilson, and Ebie Breeden. At Christmas, one member took part in a Y-Teen World Fellowship program and another was publicly chairman for the YWCA Christmas program. The club furnished gifts for a little girl at Christmas. Later they had a speaker about women in the Armed Forces, and a trip to Virginia Beach in May was planned. • At the mid-winter Conference, Beverly Pleasants presided as chairman, and Ebie Breeden was elected as the next year's conference secretary and treasurer. The club again had Miss Laura Humphries as its able and patient adviser. • Both Triangles received invaluable help from the YWCA Teenage Director, Mrs. Anita Booker, and joined the other Y-Teens in the city in the annual Y-Teen Potato Chip Sale during the spring. The profits from the sale will be used to send delegates to Camp Illahee this summer.

The boy who joins a chapter of the Hi-Y, automatically becomes a part of the great and wide-spread organization, the YMCA. Following the Hi-Y purpose, "To create, maintain and extend throughout the school and the community high standards of Christian character," the members grow and gain experience to help them become good citizens of the adult world in the future. The knowledge that they are in a nation-wide boys' organization gives a real sense of pride, and also of duty, because each boy strives to make his club a better organization. Because of this, both Tee Jay Hi-Y clubs take over certain responsibilities to their fellow students and their school. An annual money raising project is the selling of programs at all of Tee Jay's home football games. At lunch time the members take over monitorial duties in the "Rec" Hall and Cafeteria to see that they are kept orderly. For every Tee Jay-John Marshall football game the Hi-Y chapters jointly sponsor the Victory Dance and the Pep Rally. • For the first time this year membership in the clubs was changed from "closed" to "open." This means that any boy who wishes may apply for membership instead of being nominated by an old member. Both clubs meet at the YMCA for their programs which consist of a business meeting, guest speaker, a movie, or other activities. • In Hi-Y Chapter I this year the officers have been Jimmy Black, president; Joe Eanes, vice-president; Joe Davila, secretary; and Philip Morris, treasurer. • Hi-Y Chapter II officers have been Howard Gill, president; Joe Call, vice-president; "Puggy" Adams, secretary; Bob White, treasurer; and Cutler May, chaplain.

Those Brain-Weary Ones Who Produce It

The Literary Staff of "The Monticello", Tee Jay's yearbook, aims to record every phase of the school's life. • Early each year a number of yearbook themes are originated in the Literary Staff, submitted for consideration to the Business Staff, and then a theme selected by vote of the joint staffs. Questionnaires are distributed to the individuals and groups whose pictures are to appear in the book so that accurate data may be obtained and presented. Write-ups are either furnished by the persons or groups concerned or prepared by staff members. Page plans are drafted, and then the art work for the division pages is prepared. • All is not grim-faced work, however, for the staff members find real satisfaction in doing work they enjoy. During the gay annual banquet near the end of the term the first copies of "The Monticello" are distributed to the staff, and all enthusiastically receive the news of the appointments of the new editors and their associates. • The members of the staff have one ultimate goal which is to present to the student body the best yearbook possible.

Those Footsore Souls Who Finance It

Each year the Business Staff of "The Monticello" is faced with the job of financing the annual. The staff, under the supervision of Miss Frances Gray, meets each Friday in 107. During the fall term, senior and junior class picture appointments are made, and the pictures are taken. Staff photographers take pictures of the other groups, such as the sophomore and freshman classes, clubs, and feature interests. In November, staff members begin taking annual subscriptions. The entire staff solicits "ads" during the year, checks advertising proof, and collects money to cover all the finances needed. To remain on the staff each new member must solicit one new "ad", and old members must continue to get "ads." The year is completed when the finished book is delivered in late May or early June. New members and the executives for the next year are installed at the annual banquet held by both the Business Staff and the Literary Staff.

To Know the Truth . . .

When passers-by hear "Kill it" or "I need a head" coming from rooms 328 and 329, they need not worry, for that is where "The Jeffersonian" is born, bred, murdered, or rejoiced over and where a lot of time and work is spent on "getting out" Tee Jay's newspaper. From the time the stories are assigned on Friday, till the issue comes out two weeks later, reporters and editors are continuously working to present a better paper. • "The Jeffersonian" is divided into three sections—news, features, and sports. The first and sixth pages cover all the important events of the school year, such as semi-annual dances, plays, club projects, programs, and other student activities. The two feature pages give editorials, features, and the famous boy-girl interview. This year through editorials the paper promoted brotherhood, aroused school spirit, introduced Lil' Jeff, and campaigned against reckless teen-age drivers. Pages four and five carry game coverages of boys' and girls' sports and interesting facts about the players. • Of course, "The Jeffersonian" could not come out without the aid of the staff photographers and typists and the patient and good-natured help of its adviser, Miss Juanita Tiller.

Tired Tramping Toilers . . .

Two separate groups form the Business Staff of "The Jeffersonian," the Circulation and Advertising Staffs. Under the supervision of Miss Thelma Bryant, ninety-six students work together to further the business of the school paper. • The Circulation Staff which handles all duties pertaining to subscriptions is divided into three groups: fifteen captains, fifty-eight homeroom lieutenants, and the managers. At the beginning of each semester it promotes a drive for term subscriptions of seven issues for sixty cents. Each homeroom and cadet company has a lieutenant representative. Cadets buy their papers through the corps, and the first lieutenant of each company is its representative on the staff. Every homeroom having one hundred per cent subscribing has a chance to win the trophy. The winner is determined by a drawing, and the trophy is then presented by Miss Muriel Sanders, former business adviser. • Each week the lieutenants collect money from their rooms, for separate issues. Each captain has charge of four homerooms and makes his collections from the lieutenants during homeroom period on Tuesdays and on Fridays when the paper is not distributed. On every publication day one member of the staff is in the Jeffersonian room at the close of school to answer any queries while another staff member sells papers in the front hall at the close of school on the same day. This staff also handles the mailing list of alumni subscriptions and sends copies of each issue to the advertisers, business men, and schools on the exchange list. Over a period of three years over five hundred copies of the paper have been sent overseas through the Junior Red Cross. • The Advertising Staff is composed of a manager, two assistant managers, and a staff of solicitors and copy writers. The solicitors obtain advertisements from local stores and companies. The copy writers then draw up new copy and the layout for the dummy is made up for each issue. Each year the staff sponsors a "Name the Ads" contest which draws student attention to the advertising, and prizes contributed by advertisers are awarded to the three winning entrants. • In 1947 and 1948 "The Jeffersonian" Advertising Staff was awarded a plaque for outstanding work by Vincent Edwards and Company, the world's largest advertising service organization, in a contest sponsored by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. In the same contest the Staff has won second place for the past two years.

Displaying Tee Jay's Literary Talents

"The Declaration", Tee Jay's literary magazine, is published semi-annually by the literary and business staffs under the sponsorship of Miss Esther Singleton and Miss Nancy Gary. • "The Declaration" offers an opportunity for Tee Jay students to gain experience in literary work and to express their creative talents in the form of essays, poems, stories, book reviews, and illustrations. These combine to produce a magazine that continues to receive recognition from the Scholastic Press Associations. • Last December the cover featured, instead of the usual photograph, an angel in white on a red cover. This original drawing by Anne Dalzell was used in the effort to make the magazine entirely creative and more representative of the students' talents. The staff was pleased when every copy of the magazine was sold and felt that it indicated that the students were pleased with the issue.

The Rah-Rah Gang!

Do you have "S. S."? This was the theme of our eager and enthusiastic cheerleaders as they went about encouraging the student body to be more school-spirited. Headed by Jack Coleman and Connie Hook, the cheerleaders spent many afternoons painting miniature megaphones to sell Tee Jay grandstand cheerers and posters to cover the walls of Tee Jay. These not only aroused enthusiasm and contributed to the lively expression of school spirit, but proved a profitable venture from a business standpoint.

The clash with our city rival, Jay Em, was highlighted by a spirited pep rally. An army duck decorated brightly in red and white brought the excited twelve into the game in a big way.

Miss Suzanne Farley, faculty sponsor, was always there to lend a helping hand, and mascot Cary Coleman added much pep and show to every appearance.

Next year Charlotte Wright and Jimmy Hatcher will be out front to head the cheerleaders in leading our big red team to many more victories!

The Tee Jay Shincrackers

An undefeated season was not to be had by the Girls' Varsity Hockey Team this year although they came close to it with four victories, one tie, and only two defeats. Their team work increased as the season progressed under the watchful eye of their coach, Miss Edith Todd. In the Virginia All-Prep Tournament, held in Petersburg this year, the First Ladies succeeded in placing two members, co-captain Anne Terrell, right inner, and Grace Bloxsom, left inner, on the first team. Four others, co-captain Pat Oakes, goalie; Honor Patterson, left wing; Pat Mayo, left halfback; and Jane Ellen Gilbert, left fullback, gained positions on the Reserve team.

Gridders

The Jeffs unleashed a powerful, well-balanced running and passing attack as they opened their 1951 grid season by defeating Lane, 19-6. The Presidents, led by Joe Call and Ron Hebner, scored twice in the first period and added another in the fourth while chalking up seventeen first downs.

A keyed-up Salem eleven threw a scare into the Belt Liners as the highly favored Presidents were forced to come from behind to take a 20-13 win. The Jeffs ground out 294 yards to the visitors' 74 but had trouble in crossing that final yard stripe.

The Red and White, behind Joe Call's three touchdowns, handed Petersburg a sound 24-6 drubbing at Cameron Feld. The Jeffs, mixing T-formation magic with double-wing trickery in marching to their third successive win of the young season, never allowed the Waves to regain their poise.

In their first real test of the year, the Presidents ran over George Washington of Alexandria, 20-6, in a City Stadium clash. By this victory the Jeffs, who had yet to taste the bitter fruit of defeat, were thrown into the thick of Group I title contention.

Tee Jay's high riding Presidents were knocked from the ranks of the undefeated by a hard charging Hampton eleven. The Jeffs drew first blood; but their lead was short-lived, as Lloyd Hicks returned the subsequent kickoff for a score, and Rudy Hendrick's placement put the Crabbers ahead to stay.

Benedictine High's Cadets ran almost unmolested over the City Stadium turf as they defeated their arch rivals 20-0. The Jeffs' offense was held to a stand still while the small but scrappy Irish backs ran rough-shod through the Belt Liners' defenses. This loss knocked the West-Enders from city-championship contention.

A power-laden Hopewell eleven marched to their third consecutive state crown by drubbing Tee Jay 35-0 in the Wonder City. The Jeffs' offense, a highlight all year, was held to a stand-still while the Presidents' defenses were unable to halt the Blue Devils' shifty backs.

A favored Tee Jay eleven had to come from behind twice in tying their crosstown arch-rival, John Marshall, 13-13 before eleven thousand howling fans at City Stadium. The Jeffs and Justices battled on even terms throughout the contest, marked by bruising tackling and bitter line-play.

On a rain-soaked Parker Field gridiron, an underdog Washington and Lee eleven from Arlington handed Tee Jay their second loss of the year. The Generals tallied in both the second and third periods while the Jeffs could counter with only a lone quarter touchdown.

In their first game in city play, the Jeffs and the Panthers of Hermitage High battled to a 7-7 deadlock. The Presidents scored early in the first period and held the lead until Quarterback Brandmahl bulled over with less than three minutes left to play. After "King Football" had hung up his tattered uniform and laid his tired bones down to rest, those strange little men called sportswriters and coaches got together and picked the various all-teams. On the team, which is foremost in the minds of the gridiron fans at Tee Jay, the All-Richmond eleven, were found the names of two Jeffs, Fullback Joe Call and Center Bob Doggett while the state Group I coaches selected Guard Tom Lee as an All-State performer.

CO-CAPTAINS—Call, Hebner, Lee.

Jeff Cagers

Cocky? Maybe they were; but why not? Even many loyal Jeff followers were beginning to say, "Wait'll next year" after they saw their team drop their first three Central District clashes in succession. However, the team was made of better stuff than its followers and, even though the majority of this year's team was playing for the first year on the varsity squad, they just forgot their bitter losses and looked to their future, and what a future they had!

"BIG SIX"—Baird, Jenkins, Maeder, Wash, Witt, Morris.

During this cage season "Dame Fortune" really smiled on the Belt-Liners. In their next five games against district competition, the down-trodden Presidents rallied around Coach W. E. "Spud" Bloxsom and marched to five straight league wins.

Their district games complete, the team and students alike waited with bated breath as John Marshall and Hopewell tangled in the Wonder City. A Hopewell victory would have put the fast improving Jeffs entirely out of contention for a tourney berth, but the Justices trounced the Devils and threw Tee Jay and the losers into a second place tie. Playing on the neutral Hermitage High court, the Jeffs handed Coach "Chuck" Noe's five a sound 50 to 44 defeat, thus securing a right to go to Roanoke with Jay Em and represent this district in the Group I classic.

In the first round the last ceded Presidents weren't conceded much chance of upsetting the George Washington High of Alexandria five, which before the season had even begun was picked as the best scholastic five in the state; but when the final gun had sounded, the scoreboard showed the underdog Jeffs holding 48 to 47 advantage. In the second round the Richmonders engaged Newport News. In this contest the Jeffs were the ones who dropped a 49 to 50 squeaker to the team which was destined to go on to win the tourney.

In the City League the Jeffs managed to tie with John Marshall for the title. The defending champions lost only one game on an otherwise perfect slate in city play.

Many of the cagers received recognition for their outstanding performances throughout the year. Philip Morris, Everett Witt, and Edgar Baird were selected to the All-Central District Five. Baird also received other honors in being chosen to the All-City, All-Tournament, and Honorable Mention All-State Fives.

The pep, spirit, and ability of this year's Girls' Basketball Team enabled them to complete this season of ten games undefeated under the direction of their coach, Miss Mildred Brame. Practically the same group of girls have been playing together for the past three years and claim the extroordinary record of only one defeat in their league games during this time. The 1952 All-Prep Tournament was held here at Thomas Jefferson, and after a round-robin affair of games, in which girls from Hopewell, Petersburg, John Marshall, Collegiate, St. Catherine's, and Thomas Jefferson participated, two teams were chosen by a judging committee. Baseball, 1952

In the spring a young man's fancy not only turns to thoughts of love, but young Americans everywhere begin to dream of the crack of a bat, the roar of the crowd, and the smell of hot dogs and freshly roasted peanuts; and the students at Tee Jay are no different from teen agers throughout the world. This year, as well as in the previous ones, the true Jeff fans have been following the Presidents' baseball club.

As in the past several years the Belt-Liners haven't been giant killers, but with the season half over, Coach W. E. "Spud" Bloxsom seems to have the prospects of a fine team in the next few seasons.

At this point in the season the Jeffs are resting at the bottom of the City League standings while they boast a .500 mark in Central District play.

This year the team's fondest dream of upsetting the excellent John Marshall nine was almost realized. The Justices, a diamond power for the last few years, found themselves on the short end of a 9 to 8 score with two down in the ninth when the Jeffs' defenses blew sky high and the dream faded into a nightmare as the favorites pushed across the winning margin. In other city games the Jeffs found themselves on the short end of the score in games against Hermitage, the newest addition to the league, and in their Shawen Field opener against Jay Em, while in the district the Belt-Liners dropped Hopewell twice and Petersburg's Crimson Wave once.

This year's team boasts a fine one-two punch on the mound with Stafford Timberlake and Ralph Bethel, both returnees from last season's team. Receiving the slants of Timberlake and Bethel is "Chuck" Arnold, who is one of the better high school receivers in the state. Arnold, one of the leading sluggers in the city last year, is currently hitting at a .307 clip.

In the outfield Coach Bloxsom has been calling on the services of Ruby Hardin, Edgar Shine, and Stu Elliott. Elliott, perhaps the best of the three, possesses an excellent throwing arm and is also a menace at the plate.

The Presidents have the makings of a fine infield in the persons of Charlie Schremp, Binky Sheppard, Dickie Smith, Jim Black, and Bernie Pitts. Smith who last summer held down the initial sack for Post 200, has proved more than an adequate fielder and batter. Second baseman Black, the best fielder at his position in the city last season, is living up to expectations in the field, but his stick work is still below par. Pitts, a newcomer to the squad, has been a pleasant surprise at the hot corner. At shortstop Schremp and Sheppard are waging a battle to see which one will get the majority of the starting nods.

Although this season's nine is not too experienced, there is no doubt that the Belt-Liners will bring credit to their school on and off the field during the remaining games.

Thinclads of '52

Once again it looks as if Coach George Gonda has the makings of a state track power in the fold. The Jeffs, who have already captured the Group I indoor crown behind the hurdling of "Buddy" Arnold and sprinting of Alan Stringer, should be very influential in deciding who will take home the trophy at the outdoor competition later in the sason at Williamsburg. Coach Gonda will also count heavily on Joe "Log" Call, who has been a tower of strength in the weight events for three campaigns prior to the current one. In dual meets with Hopewell and Hermitage the Jeffs have proven that their showing at Charlottesville wasn't a fluke by handing the forementioned opponents sound drubbings. Against Washington and Henry the Presidents showed that Coach Gonda's squad was well-rounded and not one who depended entirely on the performances of Arnold, Stringer, and Call, as the three high scorers watched the mates from the stands. The visitors were no match for the power-laden Belt-Liners. In all, the future looks bright for Tee Jay's representatives in one of the world's oldest forms of athletics.

Girls' Softball

The 1951 Girl's Softball season drew to a close with the Lady Presidents' winning three and dropping six of their contests. One of these was an impressive victory over John Marshall, our crosstown rivals, 28-4.

With only one senior, Captain Pat Jones, the members were very young but nevertheless they developed surprisingly considering this handicap. The team this year profited by the experience they gained in the '51 season and were greatly improved.

In 1952, along with our opening on April 25 with Petersburg, the femme nine have played seven other contests. Hopewell, Petersburg, and John Marshall have been opposed twice, and Midlothian and St. Catherine's have been opposed once. Under the fine coaching of Miss Brame, our infield have developed into quite a threat and they played very well on offense as well as defense. Seniors, Carolyn Allison and Ann Terrell have captained the team while Jane Royal, assisted by Mary Evans Bristow, served as manager.

As May 21 rolled around the team had suffered losses in all of their encounters. Several of these games were won by one-point margins which indicated that, although losing, our girls played well.

Our most impressive game was played in Hopewell against the Lady Blue Devils. Behind fine pitching the Hopewell team ran the score up in the early innings. As in many games our girls began to collect hits as the pitcher weakened. Tension mounted as the score became tied, but in the last inning Hopewell scored a run that won the game.

Our team has learned much this year and will prove a threat in future seasons.

Girls' Tennis

Sixty-five enthusiastic girls turned out to participate in Miss Todd's intramural tennis program this year. The girls practice and play their games on the Byrd Park tennis courts and challenge each other to gain the top step on the ladder. The players holding the top positions at the end of the season receive the usual awards. Pat Oakes, last year's faithful manager, has returned to resume her good work in keeping track of the equipment and scheduling the extramural matches in which the team hopes to participate this season.

Boys' Tennis

Once again as a scent of warm weather begins to fill the air many ardent followers of tennis start to try out for Coach Sam Wood's net team. This year it looks as if the "man with the cigar" has the makings of another state championship team. The Belt-Liners, always a power in scholastic tennis circles throughout the Old Dominion, have swept through all opposition thus far in their quest for the title. Gene Wash and Bob Borner, mainstays of last year's squad, once again are leading the Presidents.

BOY NETTERS—First Row: Grundy, Gellman, Gee, Phillips, Bortner, Wash. • Second Row: Morgan, Church, Steger, McFee, McLemore, Steinberg.

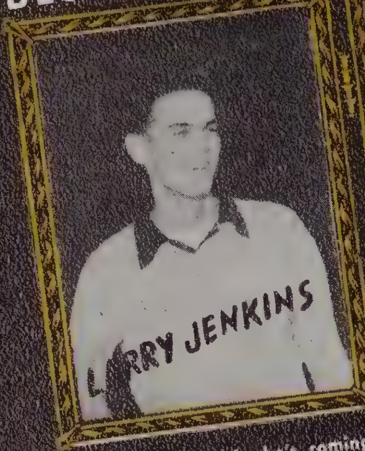
FEATURES

We were faced with a problem when the time was at hand
To choose our Prom Queen from Misses Connie and Mary Anne.
The decision was a hard one, even Santa couldn't tell
That Connie was destined for our Jr.-Sr. Belle!

Tee Jay OSCAR

BEST LOOKING

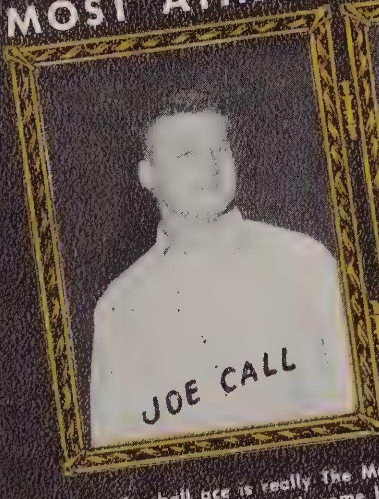


MARY ANNE HAR

Give a cheer, girls, he's coming our way.
The best-looking boy in all Tee Jay!
A wonderful specimen, a perfect male,
To Larry, our hero, we all give hail!

This gal's the prettiest in our group.
She surely sends our guys for a loop!
We know she'll be Miss America some day,
The best-looking gal in the U. S. A.!

MOST ATHLETIC



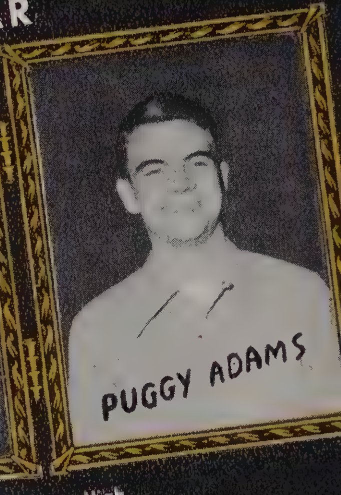
ANNE TERRELL

Our football ace is really The Man!
Every Tee Jay girl has become his fan.
Not only in football does he excel
But in shot put and discus throw as well.

Here is a girl who likes to partake
In sports, in general, and the teams to make.
She plays for the group to bring the school fame;
Anne shows sportsmanship in every game.

MOST POPULAR

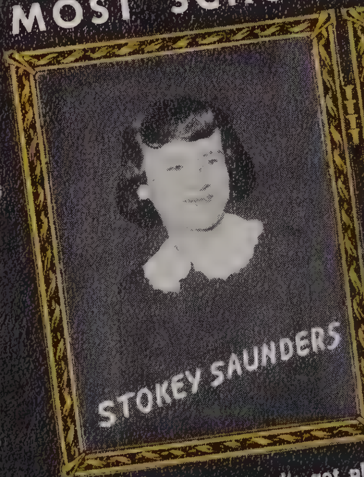
CONNIE HOOK

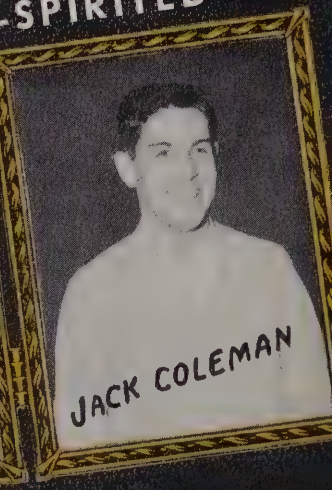


Connie is the sweetheart of Tee Jay High.
She's the dream and the apple of each boy's eye.
In popularity she rates number one,
For she tops in laughter, friendliness, and fun.

"Now boys will be boys" the old saying does go,
But this guy is different the girls all know.
He's scrumptious and elegant; his eyes make you sing,
He has "a way" with the girls, especially in the spring!

MOST SCHOOL-SPIRITED



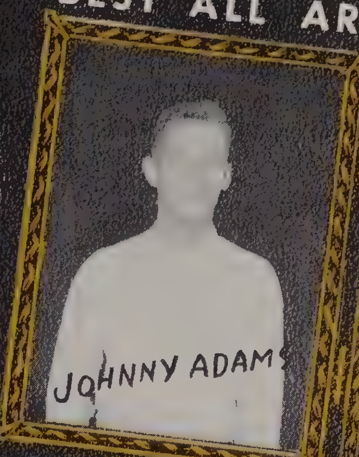


This school-spirited gal's got plenty of go,
She's out there cheering from head to toe.
With rhythm and pep and plenty of spirit,
She shouts, "Let's go! Come on, let's hear it!"

He's a leader of cheers, a friend of us all;
He's a guy who's really on the ball.
He brings pep to our school with every yell;
His school spirit really rings the bell.

WINNERS of 1952

BEST ALL AROUND



He's best all 'round in every way,
As leader and friend he's surely okay!
Wherever he's needed, he's always there;
A friendly word he can always spare.

Betty heads the list of the best all 'round.
Upon her head should be placed a crown,
Of the Tee Jay crop, she's really the cream;
She's "A-1", she's tops, she's on the beam.

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED

MARGARET ROOK

HOWARD GILL

Margaret, we predict, will really go far,
For she's hooked her wagon to a star.
In whatever she does, she'll always succeed,
And wherever she is, she'll be in the lead.

In the world of business he'll be on top,
And so ambitious he'll be hard to stop.
Whether doctor or lawyer, or merchant, or chief,
He'll always go far, it's our belief!

BEST STUDENT

BOBBY GGETT

ANNE STUART
HARTZ

He's worked hard for the glory of our Tee Jay.
His example kept others from going astray.
In school activities he's done his share.
He's an "A-1" student we do declare!

Topping her in studies are only a few.
And in musical appreciation too.
She works really hard and expects no pay.
The best girl student in all Tee Jay!

WITTIEST

TURNER CHRISTIAN

NELSON FREDSELL

Her humor is superlative, her wit superb;
Her words are all crazy, every noun and verb,
She likes to see smiles, and if given the chance,
Will make you feel merry and want to dance.

He's comical, hilarious, full of fun and laughter,
He's Tee Jay's clown . . . admit it . . . you have 'ta!
When he's around all the world wants to sing.
At one of his jokes with laughter all ring!

are these "the best years of your life"?

Parents often say they are, but there can be plenty of good times ahead.

Especially if you get a good job, doing interesting, important work with the kind of people you love to work with. Many high school girls find exactly that at the telephone company, after graduation.

So when you finish school, stop in and see us. You'll probably find a job you'll really enjoy at good pay with regular raises.

The Mark of a Champion!

When a young man can face the business world with the same undaunted courage that he bucks the line in football, and can take the bumps that inevitably will come to him in business, and can keep his fighting spirit and keep smiling . . . then he has the mark of a champion. The world needs young men like this and the world will make way for them. The life insurance business needs such men, so why not prepare yourself for a career in the life insurance business. It's a business of opportunity for young men of ambition and vision.
